DCQG presents

Kathy Flowers

“Oh Glory; The Inspiration and Journey of Patriotic Quilts”

Kathy Flowers began quilting in 1976, making doll quilts for her daughter. She started designing quilts in 2008 and sold her patterns to a local quilt shop before McCall's Quilting Magazine called in 2012.

Kathy believes that inspiration is not only visual but comes from within.

Kathy's designs continue to be published by McCall's Quilting as well as internationally distributed magazines. Her kits and patterns are available on her website, Piecesofdreams-kathy.com You may also visit Kathy on

To our Facebook fans, in addition to our page-DeKalb County Quilters Guild we have recently added a group by the same name. We did so to make it easier for you to stay in touch with other members throughout the month. Our PAGE is for the guild board to keep you up to date on the latest happenings and changes in the monthly meetings. The GROUP will be the place where YOU can share your projects, questions and comments with other guild members.

Facebook is fun and easy to do. If you are already on Facebook come on over to the group and join us. If you have never tried Facebook and would like to bring your smartphone over to Kelly during the meeting and she will get you set up. If you don't have a smartphone Facebook works just as well on your tablet, PC or laptop. Kelly will be happy to help you get started.

JOIN THE FUN TODAY!

GREETINGS FROM YOUR NOMINATING COMMITTEE

Pat and I have been hard at work to come up with a slate of officers for the coming year. We are delighted to report that most of the positions have volunteers and we are looking forward to an exciting new start to what we hope will be a great new adventure in quilting.

Jennifer Olbrich has volunteered to step into the role of President.

Bobbie Lundberg has accepted the nomination of First VP of Programs.

Kay Fredrich would like to continue as guild Secretary.

Jean Bradford would like to continue as Director at Large.

With Jennifer stepping up to president we find ourselves in need of someone to take over as Treasurer for the remainder of Jennifer's term, which is one year.

If you would like to help out in this position please let us know. Voting for these board positions will take place at the April meeting.

Committee positions are one year terms and we are happy to announce the following people have volunteered to chair these committees.
